

a) land tenure

(1) Marginals - South America

Hamberg Scrivens MS

Land tenure

pp. 56-57 Immediate possession by family & garden plot by value & being cleared and planted in

Right to collect from certain fruit trees by value & having discovered them

But no rights to hunting grounds, fishing sites, stands & arrow reeds, wooden trees, or chestnut trees, all & which are public property

Persons properly well
recognized

no marriage "purchase"

Zehnliche

cy vredna m
ms. 54HB "Pat & Pump"

Pehnliche

cy ms 54HB .
..

5. America

Each Pehuenche

(hor. about or slightly - but with horse & cattle)
had exclusive and
hereditary rights to
given Araucaria
imbricata piñones
in a given district

Rosales	1877-78	1:197
Pretas	1846	, 500

all on removed

V. Petrucci
the Yarners of Capana-
paro River, Venezuela

in

Bae-B 123

1539

old vanner

Panther

lynxes

family territories

199

family hunt. territories

"Each family group has a a territory over which it is free to roam", only members of group allowed to hunt & scent in territory

215-16

Composition of group = ^{in theory} extended family + perhaps stragglers

Dubouzhovka

anupras
(2nd Ed.)

land

II 110

no agriculture

"all things are in common with them. They have no property, as with us, 9-lands, rivers, and groves, who possess the exclusive rights of hunting, fishing, and gathering wood there."

113-14

travel about continually
on horseback

Family built. terr.

Patagonia & S America

important

m ZE 66 1534

14 Sept 4/6 1935-

pp. 331-32

Onas

He Seek'nam

Fair. hunt. &c.

Onas

425-29

all 9- territory divided into 39 hunt. grounds each possessed by a family group - varying from 120 to 40 individuals.

Warrior
Faced tenure

Ind. Paraguay
Grand Chief

39 Each tribe has a hunting territory around the village

41 If an Indian discovers honey, he marks the tree & it becomes his own (ditto pp. 19-20)

The hunting territory & wild fruits belong to all the inhabitants of the village

St. Island. Wiyase R. Jan
Property - Boro. Jemini-

II. 159. Each B captain claims a certain territory for hunting & gathering fruits. Does not allow men & other bands on his territory - & when fruits are mature, puts sentinels on pointer to watch for trespassers

Couper. Bibliog. TdP

Property - Real

pp. 178-9.

Ones have definitely marked off family hunting grounds.
and seemingly to have the Talians